English Catalog 2019

In 1995, His Holiness, the Drikung Kyabgön Chetsang initiated the Drikung Kagyü Verlag (DKV) to provide interested people and practitioners with Dharma texts in German language. Meanwhile, the range of items includes books, meditation texts, explanations on meditation and CDs. All products shall contribute to a more precise understanding of the Buddhist teaching and its methods and help to apply them in everyday life. We strive to offer a quality as high as possible both in content and design.

The translation and setting up of texts and books, most of which are only available in Tibetan or English, is time consuming and requires competent staff. Moreover, the edition numbers of the writings are low, so we are grateful for any financial support of the publishing house or of a special project.

All publications of the DKV are available or can be ordered at MANDALA, the Dharma shop of the center “Drikung Sherab Migched Ling, Zentrum für tibetischen Buddhismus e. V.” in Aachen.

Drubwang Nono Rinpoche

The Continuous Path to Awakening

A Note on How to Practice the Profound Five Fold Path

Drubwang Konchok Stanpa, popularly known as Nono Rinpoche, was the 17th Instruction Master of Densa Thil. He wrote this practice manual, which is used at the main seat's retreat centers. His marvelous gift to the teachings of the Practice Lineage is written in great detail, session by session, and it is, by far, the most dependable text on the way to practice the Five-fold Path of Mahamudra.

H.H. the Drikung Kyabgön Chetsang Water Crystal

A Commentary on the Ganges Mahamudra

The Ganges Mahamudra is the source of the glorious Kagyupas' river-like lineage of practice and blessings; given by Tilopa as mind instructions to the scholar and mahasiddha Naropa, it is an unexcelled profound Dharma, concise and easy to understand. The book contains the Tibetan text and the English translation.

OTTER VERLAG

Jigten Sumgön

Gongchig

The Single Intent, the Sacred Dharma

The Gongchig (The Single Intent or the Unified Enlightened-Thought) is regarded as the most distinctive teaching of the Drigung Kagyu lineage. It represents the culmination of Kyobpa Jigten Sumgön's (1143-1217) study, practice and realization of sutra and tantra teachings as bestowed exclusively on his heart-son, Chenga Sherab Jungne (1187-1241).

The title of the treatise, The Single Intent, points to the fact that Jigten Sumgön's and the Buddha's intentions were the same. As Rinchen Jangchub, the younger brother of Sherab Jungne and the first commentator of the Gongchig put it: "Each of the vajra-statements has a different meaning, yet in every single statement the meaning of all is summarized. Therefore this teaching is identical with the intention of the Buddha."

Matthew T. Kapstein

The Great Transference at Drikung

Its Last Traditional Performance

In 1992 the Tibetan Buddhist pilgrimage and festival of the Great Transference at Drikung was revived after a gap of thirty-six years. This would prove to be the only renewal of its traditional performance

Matthew T. Kapstein, whose study of the event is reproduced here for the first time with color photographic documentation, is the author of many works on Buddhism and Tibetan history, including The Tibetan Assimilation of Buddhism and The Tibetans. He is Director of Tibetan Studies at the École Pratique des Hautes Études, Paris, and Numata Visiting Professor of Buddhist Studies at the University of Chicago.

Namkha Samdrub Gyaltsen

A Garland of Immaculate Moons

The Biography of Lapchiwa Namkha Gyaltsen, a Mind Emanation of Jetsün Milarepa And An Astounding Garland of Lights Which Open the Eyes of Faith – A Verse Supplication to the Lord of Yogins

Lapchiwa Namkha Gyaltsen (1372–1437) was considered an incarnation, or at least emanation, of the Lord of Yogins, Jetsün Milarepa (1040–1123). However, for all the exemplary life that he led, he is virtually forgotten today, like other great masters. He cast away worldly entanglements and immersed himself fully in the practice of the Buddha-dharma, which eventually led him to achieve highest realizations and presumably liberation.

This biography was composed by Namkha Samdrub Gyaltsen (1408–1462), a close student of the Lapchiwa. Also included in this volume, you will find a wonderful supplication to Jetsün Milarepa, considered lost for a long time and also penned by Namkha Samdrub Gyaltsen.

Ayang Thubten Rinpoche

Rays of Sunlight

A Commentary on

The Heart of the Mahayana Teachings

Ayang Thubten Rinpoche's Rays of Sunlight is a commentary on Zhedang Dorje's The Heart of the Mahayana Teachings, a detailed guide to the stages of the path to awakening. Containing all of the Drikung Kagyu tradition's essential teachings on sutra and tantra, Rays of Sunlight is one of the most treasured works in the Drikung Kagyu tradition.

Like Gampopa's Jewel Ornament of Liberation, the text Rays of Sunlight begins with a discussion of Buddha-nature, the nascent Buddha within all beings, before presenting the sequential practices we must cultivate to fully awaken its transcendent qualities. With its lucid explanation of how a single individual can uphold the pratimoksha vows, bodhisattva precepts, and tantric samaya without contradiction, Rays of Sunlight is sure to be of interest to dedicated practitioners of all traditions. And for those with an affinity for the profound path of meditation, the text closes with an extraordinary explanation of "The Fivefold Path of Mahamudra."

Chenga Sherab Jungne

Scintillation of the Precious Dharma

The Life Path of Complete Liberation of the Dharma Lord Jigten Sumgön - With the biography of the author "Roaring Thunder of Fame"

Jigten Sumgön (1143–1217) is the founder of the Drikung Kagyu school of Tibetan Buddhism. His nephew and disciple Chenga Sherab Jungne recorded the authentic biography on which all later biographies are based. In this life story, Jigten Sumgön's path to liberation becomes discernible as the overcoming of all mental defilements, faults and confusions. Through this, his closest disciples and other Tibetan and Indian saints recognise in their master the reincarnation of Nagarjuna and a perfect buddha.

The brief biography of the author, Chenga Sherab Jungne, provides additional insights into the founding years of the Drikung Kagyu tradition.

Drikung Kyobpa Jigten Sumgön

A Stream of Nectar

Public Teachings

The public teachings of Jigten Sumgon (1143–1217), the founder of the Drikung Kagyu lineage of Tibetan Buddhism, are a source of wisdom. He not only explains the pure offering and pure dedication, the philosophical main features of the Kagyu school, and the four yogas of the Mahamudra tradition but also the vajra body, the practice of channels, chakras, and winds, the responsibility of the disciple, and much more. Won Sherab Jungne, a heart son of Jigten Sumgon, took notes on these public teachings and commented on them. Finally, Dorje Dragpa, the fifth lineage holder of the Drikung Kagyu transmission, compiled them in the present form. The English translation is followed by the Tibetan text in full.

Drikung Kyobpa Jigten Sumgön

The Inexhaustible Source of Nectar

Collected Vital Points of Mountain Dharma

“Mountain Dharma” is a genre of Buddhist texts providing practical instructions for conducting solitary retreat in the mountains or other remote places. "The Inexhaustible Source of Nectar" collects sections from seven Mountain Dharma teachings given by Drikung Kyobpa Jigten Sumgon, the founder of the Drikung Kagyu lineage, and written down by his student On Sherab Jungne. Here Kyobpa Jigten Sumgon shows himself to be a master of dependent origination. He extensively considers activities of body and speech as well as mental attitudes, and he precisely specifies how they affect a retreat positively or negatively.

Konchog Norzang

Tara Wisdom

„A Bouquet of Blue Lotus Flowers“ That Elucidates Kyobpa Jigten Sumgon’s „Seven Supplications to Tara“

In 1174, the Protector of the Three Worlds, Drikung Kyobpa Jigten Sumgon, spontaneously composed the „Seven Supplications to Tara“ while he beheld seven aspects of the Noble Savioress in a direct vision. To fathom and appreciate the depth of this important Vajra song, in the nineteenth century the monk and scholar Konchog Norzang wrote a quintessential commentary for it. „A Bouquet of Blue Lotus Flowers“ unfolds the profound wisdom of Tara from the ultimate perspective of Mahamudra.

Phagmodrupa and Jigten Sumgön

The Vows of the Three Vehicles

How to Train in the Vows of Buddhist Practice

Certainty regarding appropriate conduct is crucial in all stages of the Buddhist path – specifically, knowing which actions are prohibited and which are encouraged. This book provides guidelines for the practitioner who has taken the vows of the three vehicles of Tibetan Buddhism. Here, Jigten Sumgön (1143-1217), the founder of the Drigung Kagyu school of Tibetan Buddhism, and his guru Phagmodrupa (1110-1170) answer the question: What does it mean to take the pratimoksha, bodhi-sattva, and Vajrayana vows?

A Commentary on the Five Preliminary Practices called the Blazing Glory of Blessings.

Commentary by

Khenchen Konchog Gyaltsen Rinpoche

Edited by Khenmo Trinlay Chödrön

I am very grateful to most Ven. Khenchen Rinpoche for tirelessly and compassionately working for many years, and composing this invaluable book for the benefit of all sentient beings. So I recommend that those who are in the three years retreat as well as daily practitioners follow this text which has comprehensive explanations and instructions.

TEXTS

The texts we offer were produced by the publisher Drikung Kagyü Verlag with a few exceptions. Unless noted otherwise, they are in English or they are provided with phonetic transcription and English translation. We have further texts on hand, which are not listed here. They are only offered in the particular Dharma Centers when advanced transmissions are given. For the centers there is a supplemental catalog available which can be ordered from us.

Text in Tibetan format

Text in A5 format

Our meditation texts are edited in two formats, in an A5 format and in the Tibetan horizontal format (-tib-). The texts in A5 format are available as booklets or with a ring binding (-a5h-) and in a hole punched version on paperboard (-a5l-). The hole punched texts can be individually arranged in an A5 presentation folder (099-998-a5l-en, €4).

In the following, the texts included in the collective volumes (see pages 12/13) are provided with the number of the respective volume, e.g. *1 for volume 1.

Generally the texts have the same price in each format. However, there are a few exceptions, e.g. caused by higher costs for a folder.

TERMS & COND.

ORDERS

You can order books, texts and other articles by letter, fax, email, telephone or via our online shop (see address on the back of the catalog). For each item, please quote the order code, the short description and the desired quantity.

In view of the large number of articles in different editions (especially practice texts), we can not always keep all versions in stock. A low stock level also allows us to deliver the latest version in case of corrections and new editions.

If you wish to order a large quantity of an article, we ask you to contact us four weeks in advance if possible, so that we can deliver in time.

Prices include value added tax (German Mehrwertsteuer) and are valid until a new catalog comes out (Errors excepted).

SHIPPING

In general, we are shipping with Deutsche Post. Shipping costs are added to the total of purchases.

In case an item is not in stock and can not be provided quickly, we will let you know when you can expect delivery.

PAYMENT

Private customers who do not order via our online shop, pay the total amount inclusive shipping cost by prepayment. We will inform you about the total amount and as soon as it is booked on our account, we will send you the goods.

Traders and Dharma centers will receive an invoice with the goods. We ask you to transfer the amount to our account without deduction within one month. Please specify the invoice number and -date. Ordered goods remain the property of the center until the full invoice amount has been received.

For larger quantities and for resellers we offer discounts for products of the Drikung Kagyü Verlag. In this case, please contact us.

EXCHANGE & COMPLAINTS

In case you want to exchange or complain about an article, please talk to us in advance send it to us only then, if necessary.
